Richard H. Ward Dies Suddenly At Beach

Richard Herbert Ward of 149 Clinton street died suddenly Sunday afternoon of a heart attack on the beach near Half Moon bay. Mr. Ward was conversing with friends while sitting on the sand at a picnic when he collapsed. An employee of the Redwood City Ice Delivery, he had resided here for eight years and had formerly lived in Menlo Park.

Surviving him are his widow, Mrs. Hazel Ward, and three brothers, Will J., Fred P. and John H. Ward, all of Visalia.

Funeral services will be held at the James Crowe Company Chapel (Parnelle & Phillips) at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. Interment will be at Alta Mesa Memorial Park.

Citizenship Papers Given Twenty Here

Twenty erstwhile aliens were formally welcomed into the ranks of United States citizenship yesterday in Superior Court No. 2, presided over by Judge Franklin Swart. Mayor Charles G. Lambert was the speaker of the day. Mrs. Augusta Sharkey, patriotic instructor of the Woman's Relief Corps, presented each new citizen with a United States flag and its history. There were 36 in the class taking the examination.

MERCHANTS SET 'BARGAIN DAYS' SALE TODAY

Redwood City community-wide "Bargain Days" are being held here today and Saturday.

In nearly every line of merchandise local merchants are offering outstanding values. In today's Beacon the announcements of the merchants participating will be found.

Mother, Two Small Children Struck By Auto Here

Mrs. Alice Barlow of 448 East Hopkins avenue and her two young children were cut and bruised yesterday when they were run down by an unidentified motorist while crossing Arguello street at Sampson street, she had reported to the Redwood City police today.

They escaped with cuts and bruises, although the two-wheeled cart in which Mrs. Barlow was pushing Gene, seven months old, was run over by the car. She was also leading Robert, 2. The driver stopped and gave her a business firm's card, Mrs. Barlow told the police, but drove away without taking them to get medical assistance.

Retain Governor Merriam

Frank F. Merriam is making a vigorous campaign for governor. According to the latest reports he will sweep the state by the largest vote ever given a candidate for that position in California. The people are with him and are going to keep this fearless man at the capital.

His early life sounds like Abraham Lincoln's, friends say. He was born in a log cabin near Hopkinton, Ia. Later, when he worked his way through Lenox College, he did so by sawing and splitting wood.

His first education was received in a country school four miles from his home, a distance he walked every day.

Probably explains why he thinks school buses are a good idea.

At Lenox College, was school janitor and librarian when not sawing wood. Also developed into the college's champion orator.

Became a school teacher after graduation and acquired rank of principal, and later superintendent of schools. But decided he'd rather be a newspaperman, so became editor and publisher of the Hopkinton weekly newspaper.

Through the newspaper, entered politics, and became clerk of the Iowa State Legislature, was elected a member of that body and then served two terms as state auditor.

But the newspaper business called again, and he established the Muskogee Times in Indian Territory.

About 25 years ago Merriam came to California, settling in Long Beach.

Entered the real estate business, but became advertising manager of a Long Beach newspaper.

Embarked upon his second political career in 1916, when elected to the California Assembly. Two terms there, and he became speaker, and held that for six years. In 1928 was promoted via election to the Senate, and two years later was elected lieutenant governor.

Hartley Russell Worthy

Hartley Russell, candidate for a member of the State Board of Equalization for this district, was born in San Francisco 42 years ago. His father was the late Chief Stephen D. Russell of the San Francisco Fire Department, who was killed in a fire in the year 1917. Educated in public schools of San Francisco and Menlo Park. Graduate of Pacific College of Law. Married and father of two children. Was a volunteer and saw active service during the World War.

Assigned to tax investigation by the United States Treasury Department during the years 1919 and 1920. Has practiced as a tax attorney since 1920 and has represented taxpayers of California in their problems which in the monetary aggregate involved many millions of dollars in assessments and penalties. He is one of the foremost tax authorities in the West.

Hartley Russell is pledged to support measures that would eliminate food stuffs, in either raw or prepared forms, from taxation. This would decrease the State's revenue by approximately $10,000,000. He maintains that this loss could be offset by a direct imposition of the tax upon the wholesaler or distributor, rather than the retailer, whereby 100 per cent of the tax thusly imposed could be collected, while as is authoritatively estimated only about 80 per cent of the tax under the present administration and system is being collected.

Since approximately $50,000,000 is the annual return to the state from collections through retail sales tax act of 1933 and this amount represents 80 per cent of the actual amount due, the collection of 100 per cent of the tax imposed upon the wholesaler or distributor would reflect a return of about $62,500,000. This additional $12,500,000 will more than offset the decrease in revenue of $10,000,000 through the exemption of food stuffs from taxation.

Hartley Russell's stand as to the equity or inequity of each and every phase of the several acts which come under the jurisdiction of the State Board of Equalization is definite and unevasive.

McGrath Should Remain

"Jim" McGrath, the popular sheriff, is certain of election. His record is clean and one that commends itself to every citizen of the county. He makes an ideal officer, fearless, capable and honest. Every one having business with his office is treated with courtesy and with consideration. A vote for "Jim" McGrath is a vote to retain an efficient and capable man in office.

"FINISHING SCHOOL" ON SCREEN

Restrictions On Rubber May Bring Increase

Strong possibility exists that restrictions being placed on crude rubber will affect tire prices, in the opinion of Walter Lynch, local dealer for The Goodyear Tire & Rubber Company.

"It seems quite reasonable to expect that the crude rubber restrictions will result in higher tire prices," Mr. Lynch declared. "In that event, the person who buys tires now, while prices are still low, will probably be saving money."

"Saving money is just one advantage in buying tires at this time," he continued. "Tires purchased now will give the car owner non-skid mileage during the remainder of the summer and during the winter when sure-footed traction is necessary on wet, slippery streets."

"This is particularly true of the new Goodyear 'G-3' All-Weather tire, which was announced to the public this spring. The 'G-3,' with its wider, flatter tread, more traction in the center of the tread, and an average of two pounds more rubber per tire, proved under grueling tests that it delivered 43 per cent more non-skid mileage than old-style tires."

"It would seem to me to be a saving in more ways than in money to buy 'G-3's' at the present time," Mr. Lynch concluded.

Supervisor Brown Pays Visit Here; Tells Her Aims

Mrs. Rosalie M. Brown, who is seeking re-election to the office of supervisors for the Second Township, was in Redwood City yesterday in the interest of her campaign. Mrs. Brown is asking the support of the voters at the August primary on her record as supervisor during the past 14 years. Appointed by Governor Stephens in 1920 to succeed her husband, the late William H. Brown, the incumbent has been re-elected four times since by large majorities.

During her 14 years of service as a member of the board, Supervisor Brown has gained much knowledge of the laws governing counties. She has become familiar with every section of the county realizes and knows its needs and the aspirations of its people. Mrs. Brown feels that she is better qualified than ever to fill the position of supervisor.

Serving during the creation and inauguration of the county charter, Supervisor Brown calls attention to the fact that there was naturally much confusion in the beginning of the application of the charter to the county government needs. With the interpretation of the legal advisors and the officials and citizens becoming accustomed to the charter's fundamental provisions of government, a smooth working system will result which will add to efficiency in the county, she points out.

Fully cognizant of the tax burden, Supervisor Brown says she will strive, as she has in the past, to keep the tax situation at the lowest possible rate consistent with proper government and the needs of the unemployed.

Kingsford-Smith Selects General Gasoline, Oils

When Sir Charles Kingsford-Smith, sky adventurer and the man whom Lindbergh has named the world's No. 1 pilot, takes to the air for a speed dash across land and ocean from London to Melbourne next October 20, his will be an all-American entry, according to R. C. White, branch manager of General Petroleum Corporation here.

Plane motor, lubricants and fuel will be American, produced in America. Even the broad crews along the 12,000-mile race route will be made up of Americans or directed by citizens of this country. Much of Kingsford-Smith's time while in this country was spent with officials of Socony-Vacuum and its Pacific Coast affiliate, General Petroleum Corporation, in planning Mobiloil and Mobilgas refueling depots at control points along the London-Melbourne route.

CAR OVERTURNS

SAN MATEO, Aug. 2.—An expensive car belonging to Charles Blythe, Hillsborough, was overturned at Fifth avenue and Grant street here today after it had mowed down 40 feet of fence in front of property close by. The occupants of the car, Fred A. Sweeney, chauffeur, Mrs. Greenland, nurse, and Blythe, were uninjured.

ARMY ENGINEERS SAY PORT PROJECT SOUND

[EDITORIAL]

It will come as assuring news to those who have not followed the San Mateo County Port project closely that the highest federal engineering authorities—detached from local influences and charged with only the wisest expenditure of funds—have closely scrutinized the Redwood Harbor proposal and have declared it "advisable and justified."

Time and again since 1882 the Corps of Army Engineers has investigated various projects for Redwood Creek development.

Step by step the bay development has progressed through their advice from a mere shallow channel subject to tidal action to the present proposal where the greatest deep-draft freighters afloat soon will tie up at San Mateo county's own docks.

As a group, there are no abler engineers in the world than the army provides. Their consideration of harbor projects is unbiased, impartial and founded solely upon the merits or demerits as they find them. The engineers have on many occasions been referred to as "hard boiled" in their treatment of pet projects which in their judgment did not come up to the rigid tests of their extensive analysis.

We say, therefore, that it is re-assuring when it can be pointed out that time and again Redwood Harbor has been declared meritorious. In 1882, 1896, 1909, 1917, 1927 and 1933 favorable reports have been forwarded to congress advising that further federal participation is worthy of consideration.

The army engineers have nursed the project from the first improvement of a three-foot channel 50 feet wide in 1882 to the present approved channel 27 feet deep and 200 feet wide.

With the approval came recommendations that the federal government pay $94,000, or half, of the $188,000 dredging costs. Also approved by the PWA was $91,000 as an outright grant toward the harbor. To this should be added the additional assurance of the federal government that $107,000 for dredging San Bruno shoals will be forthcoming if and when Redwood Harbor is created. As a final pledge the government promises to maintain the channel at a cost of $16,500 yearly.

There we have federal gifts totaling $308,000 at stake.

San Mateo county on August 28 will be asked to lend its credit on a $450,000 bond issue to provide the shore facilities that will make Redwood Harbor an actual public port.

The assurance is given by traffic experts, however, that the port will be self-sustaining and that earnings will meet the interest and liquidate the bonds; and that the port will return profits to the public in addition to the industries, payrolls, increased land values and lower taxes which the development promises.

We cast our lot with the harbor project because we believe that what the army engineers say has truth and dependability.

With Flying Colors

Acting Governor Merriam has come out of the strike emergency with flying colors. Thus are political destinies decided by the turn of a wheel. If the presence of the National Guard in San Francisco had precipitated bloodshed, or if public opinion had not swung so sharply away from the strikers, or if the Communist plot had not been exposed—in other words, a long series of IFS. But the stars were right, the gods were kind, and Merriam emerges greatly strengthened for the coming primary election—Palo Alto Sun.

All Set For 12,000-Mile Race

With his speed-plane stowed aboard the S.S. Mariposa and all arrangements made through Socony-Vacuum Oil Company for fueling and lubricating, Sir Charles Kingsford-Smith, noted Australian flier, is en route back to Melbourne, from which city he will go to London in October as an entrant in the London-to-Melbourne international race. Center is shown the Lockheed Altair he will fly. Inset, top, is his wife, Lady Mary Kingsford-Smith. Below, left to right, are Wallace Berry, screen star, who is an officer in the Naval Aviation Reserve; Kingsford-Smith and Captain Frederick W. Haig, another Australian aviator. The race is scheduled for October 20.

Walter A. Emmett, Early Settler, Dies in L. A.

Walter A. Emmett, former Sequoia trustee and Belmont pioneer, died Saturday in Los Angeles, according to word received here today. Final rites were held at 2:30 today in the Cypress Lawn Memorial Park chapel, Lawndale.

Emmett erected one of the first business buildings in Belmont, which is still a landmark. He served for 12 years on the Sequoia Union High School board, Redwood City, and was among the trustees who selected the present site.

Emmett street in Belmont is named for the family.

The deceased leaves a daughter, Mrs. Daryl Cullen of Los Angeles, with whom he has made his home for the past five years, and a son, Walter Emmett Jr., of San Mateo.

Jewish Style of Cooking Will Be Featured Monday

How Mosaic law created a distinct and unusual culinary art will be revealed by Mrs. Sol Silverman, Emanuel, in an interview with program Monday morning, 10 wife of the publisher of the Joan Andrews on the Menu Flash o'clock, over KPO.

The strictness of Rabbinical law regarding food and its preparation has called into play the skill and ingenuity of Jewish housewives for centuries, according to Mrs. Silverman, and resulted in a unique cooking style.

NO DAMAGE FROM FIRE—A grass fire Tuesday afternoon at 427 Harrison street was extinguished by the Redwood City Fire Department. No damage resulted.

MENLO PARK NEWS

The dedication of the new city hall will go down in history as one of the big events of Menlo Park. Wednesday hundreds gathered at the new building on Doyle street to enjoy the ceremony. It was a gay gathering of citizens from all parts of the county. The numerous candidates for political office were present in large numbers lending their aid to happy occasion. A street dance at the entrance of the hall was a feature that was enjoyed by the young folks. The building is nicely located and will accommodate the needs of the city in every way. Offices have been arranged for the city attorney, city judge and building inspector. The meeting place for the council is spacious, capable of seating a large crowd and is well ventilated.

Mrs. Leland F. Prior Jr., entertained a few friends at luncheon today at the Army and Navy Club of San Francisco in the Fairmont Hotel.

A baby girl born June 29 to Mr. and Mrs. David Bradley of Menlo Park has been named Helen Winifred.

Thirty-three towns in England have been placed on the "White List" started by the British Minister of Health to designate communities which have no slums.

One famous as the "bride ship" through carrying many brides-elect from England to Canada, the liner Matagama has arrived at Bo'ness, Scotland, to be dismantled.

When winter comes, frogs bury themselves in the mud and begin breathing through their skins, instead of their nostrils.

Rising tin prices as the result of the buffer pool plan are bringing joy to tin miners in British Malaya.

BARGAINS Vs. QUALITY

This being "Bargain Day" in Redwood City we would like to make a few statements regarding the policy upon which we operate our meat market.

At all times we sell ONLY top grade choice A-1 steer beef and the best of all other types of meat. We naturally cannot sell this type of meat at so-called "bargain" prices. However, if you stop to analyze the true value of the meat you eat, you will find that you will save money and be far ahead in satisfaction if you consistently purchase quality meats at our market.

Dairyland Butter - Long a Gold Medal Winner - is now Certified by Department of Agriculture

For several years the freshness, purity and fine flavor of Dairyland Butter has been recognized by the expert butter judges and the Pacific States Slope Dairy Show and the California State Fair. At both events they have awarded the gold medal to Dairyland Butter.

Now at every churning an official Federal-State butter grader tests and grades Dairyland Butter. This official certificate of quality issued by the United States Department of Agriculture and California Department of Agriculture is on every pound of Dairyland Butter, certifying that the quality is 92 SCORE OR HIGHER.

No other butter on the San Francisco market is certified by the government.

Your last opportunity
TO MAKE THESE SAVINGS ON GAS HEATING EQUIPMENT

SUMMER will soon be gone. Soon fickle fall with a sudden drop in temperature will be here. If you have an old-fashioned heating system this means getting back to the routine of ordering, storing and handling fuel and constant fire tending. And even then perhaps, never getting your house really warm.

Why not stop all this right now and save money? Change to the carefree comfort of Natural Gas heating. By automatic thermostat, by three-heat control or by turning a key you can keep your house at desired, healthful temperature no matter how changeable the weather may be.

Go ahead—make the change now. Why delay when it is so easy to pay for gas heating equipment at this time? It takes only a few hours, for example, to install a Natural Gas burner in your present furnace. Floor furnaces or circulating heaters and other gas heating appliances are likewise quickly and easily installed. Then you and your family are ready to enjoy the convenience of clean, carefree, healthful heating this fall and winter and many winters to come.

Remember, the special 10% Summer Discount on gas heating equipment ends this month. Why not go ahead and order your Natural Gas heating installed today?
